Great article. We are in the process of paying down debt, and the freedom we feel in watching that number decrease is a beautiful thing! Doing something RIGHT AWAY is key because, as your chart above shows, the greater the amount of money going into paying debt, the less you have to spend (even on the things you truly need!), so the debt pile increases and you never get out from under it.

1. Income Based Repayment Plan (IBR) The Income Based Repayment Plan (IBR) is one of the most common repayment plans borrowers switch to if they are having financial hardship. If you have loans from before July 1, 2014, your payment will not be higher than 15% of your discretionary income. On this plan, you will make payments for 25 years, and at that point, your loans will be forgiven.
