

ubi fera sunt pdf

The latest to join these ranks is Ubi Fera Sunt, a delightful translation of Maurice Sendak's beloved children's classic by Rick LaFleur, himself a classic, best known for his thorough updating of Wheelock's Latin. The translation stays true in meaning to Sendak's original and is as literal as possible in idiomatic Latin.

term "Sendakian." The audience I envision for Ubi Fera Sunt will surely include, besides some children-at-heart classicists, a fair number of readers I'd call "semi-Latinists," folks who studied the language, loved it, and remember some, and who, likewise loving their Sendak and his whimsical jeu d'esprit,

Ubi Fera Sunt* â€” Reader Q&A

Although Ubi Fera Sunt is more expensive than the average children's book, it is not significantly pricier than the English-language original. Thus this book could be suitable as a fun extra text for middle-school or high-school Latin classes, as well as for family libraries, and as â€œchicken soupâ€• for the tired Classicist's soul.
